

If you were the
_____ in
this picture, how would you feel?

What might happen
next in this picture?
What makes you think
that?

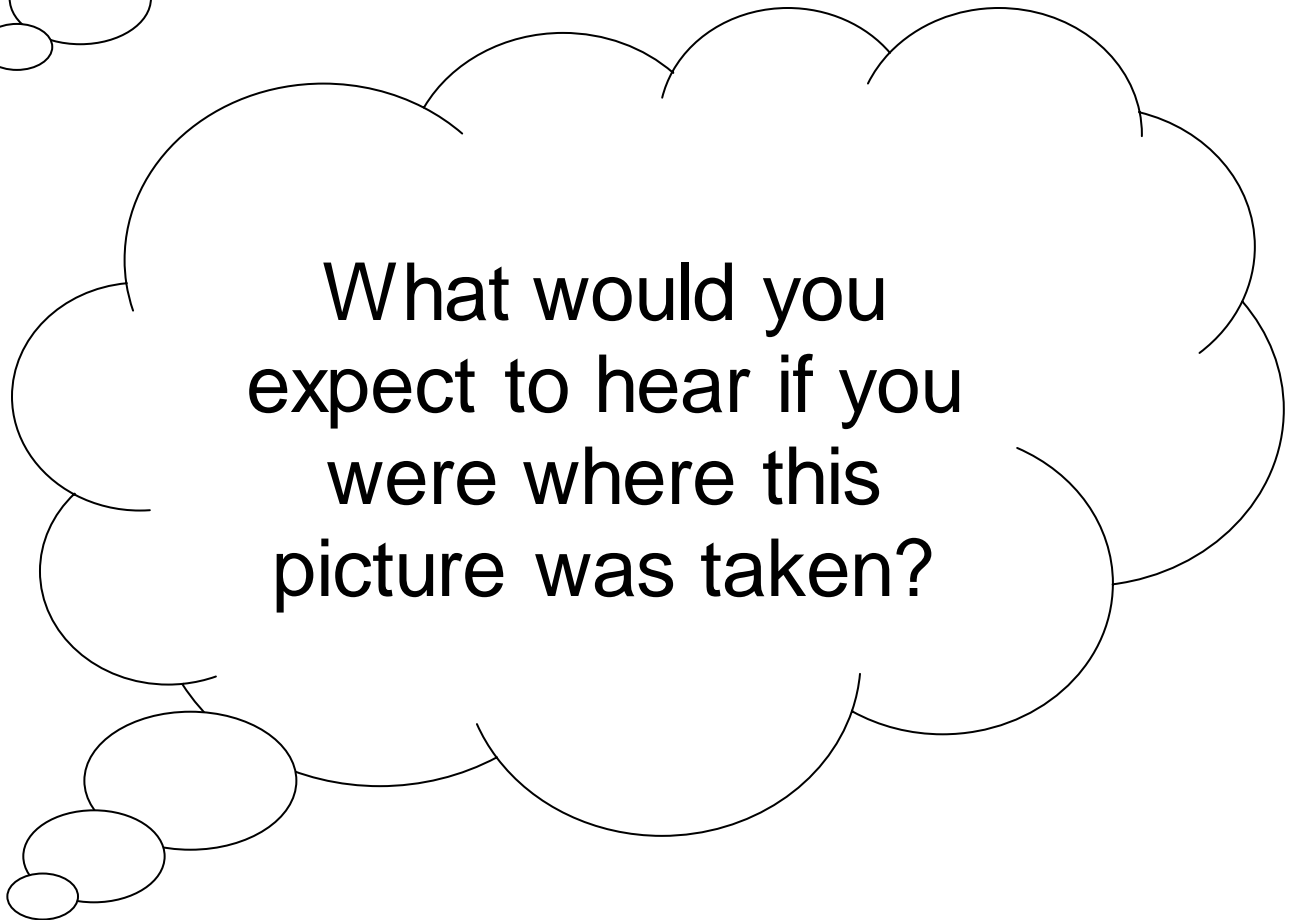

What don't you see in
this picture that you
think you should see?

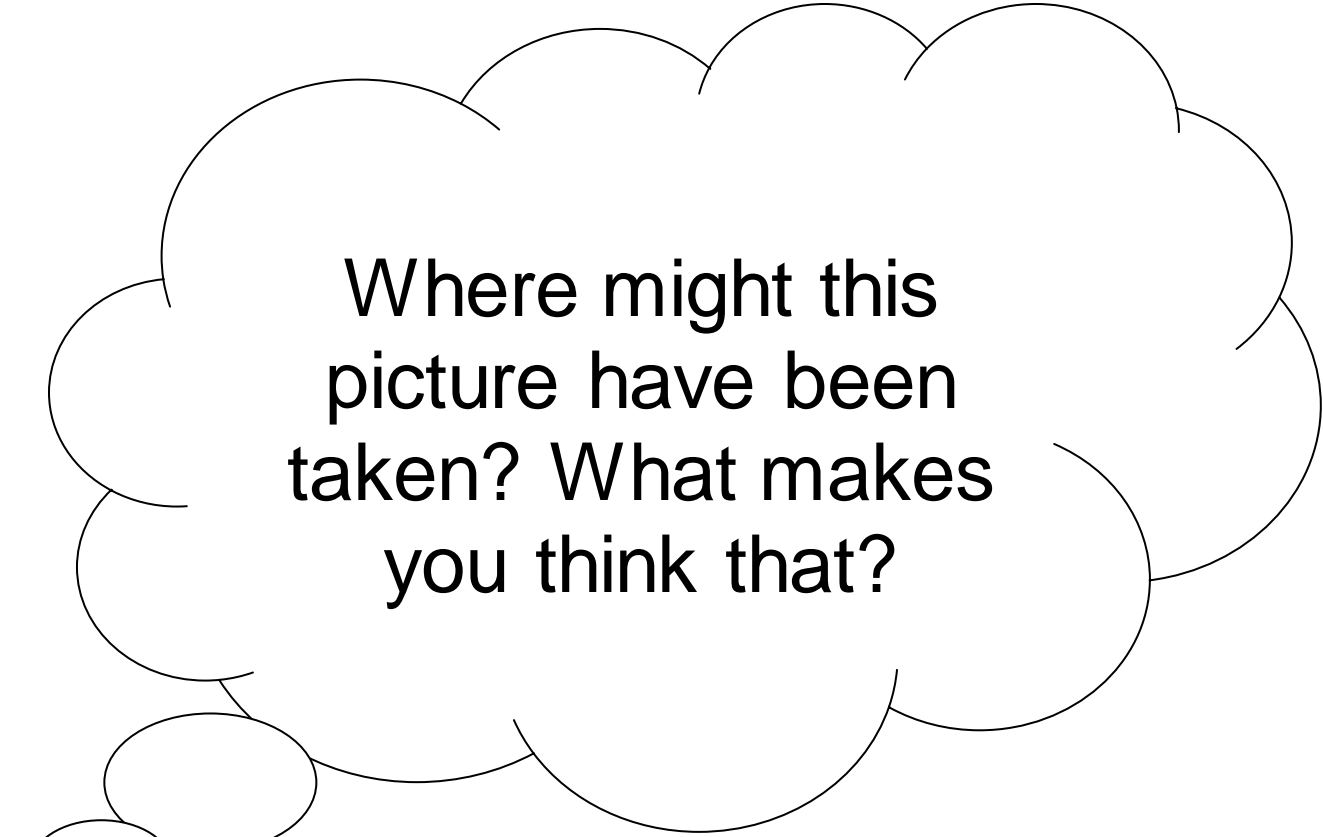

A large, irregular thought bubble shape with a scalloped border. Inside the bubble, there are four horizontal lines spaced evenly, intended for writing an answer.

What would you
expect to hear if you
were where this
picture was taken?

A second large, irregular thought bubble shape, identical to the one above, with a scalloped border and no text or lines inside.

Where might this picture have been taken? What makes you think that?

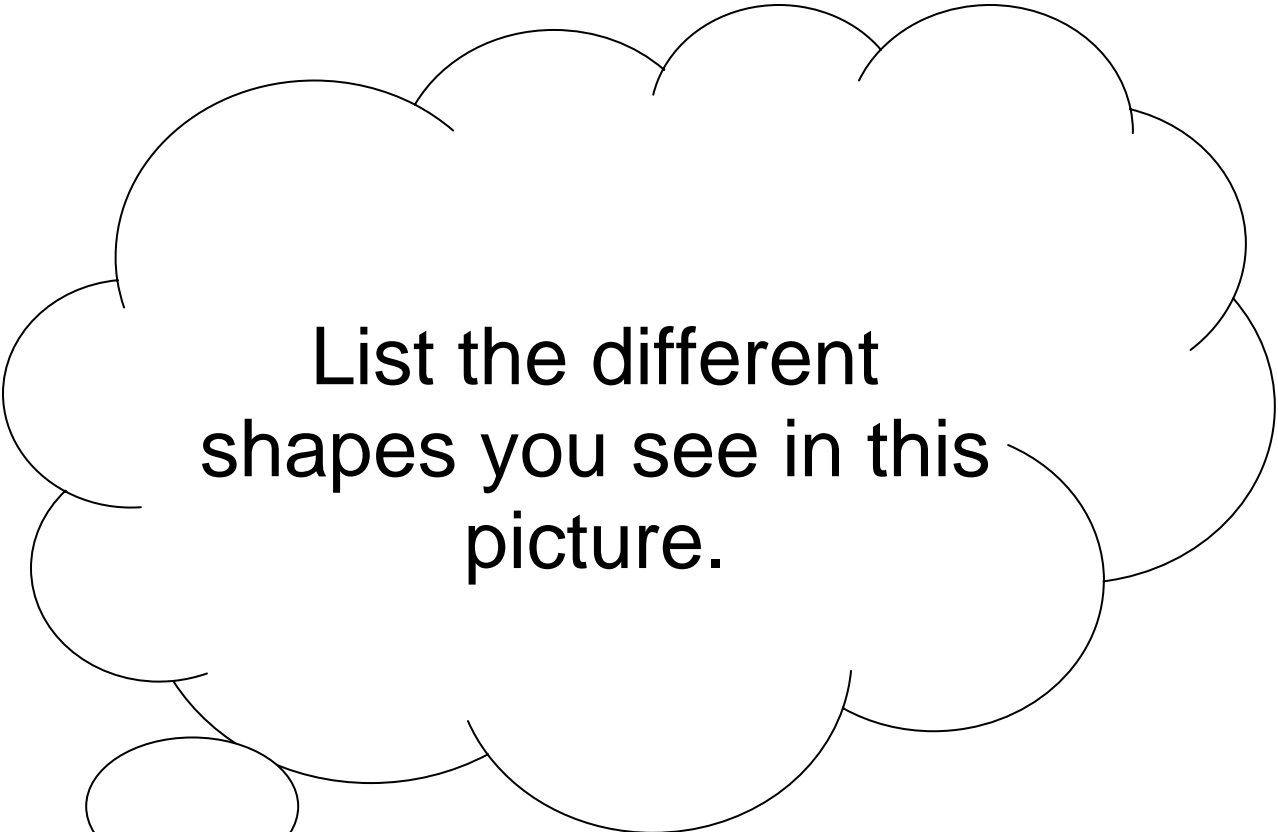

What objects could be placed into this picture that would belong?

Circle all the people
with

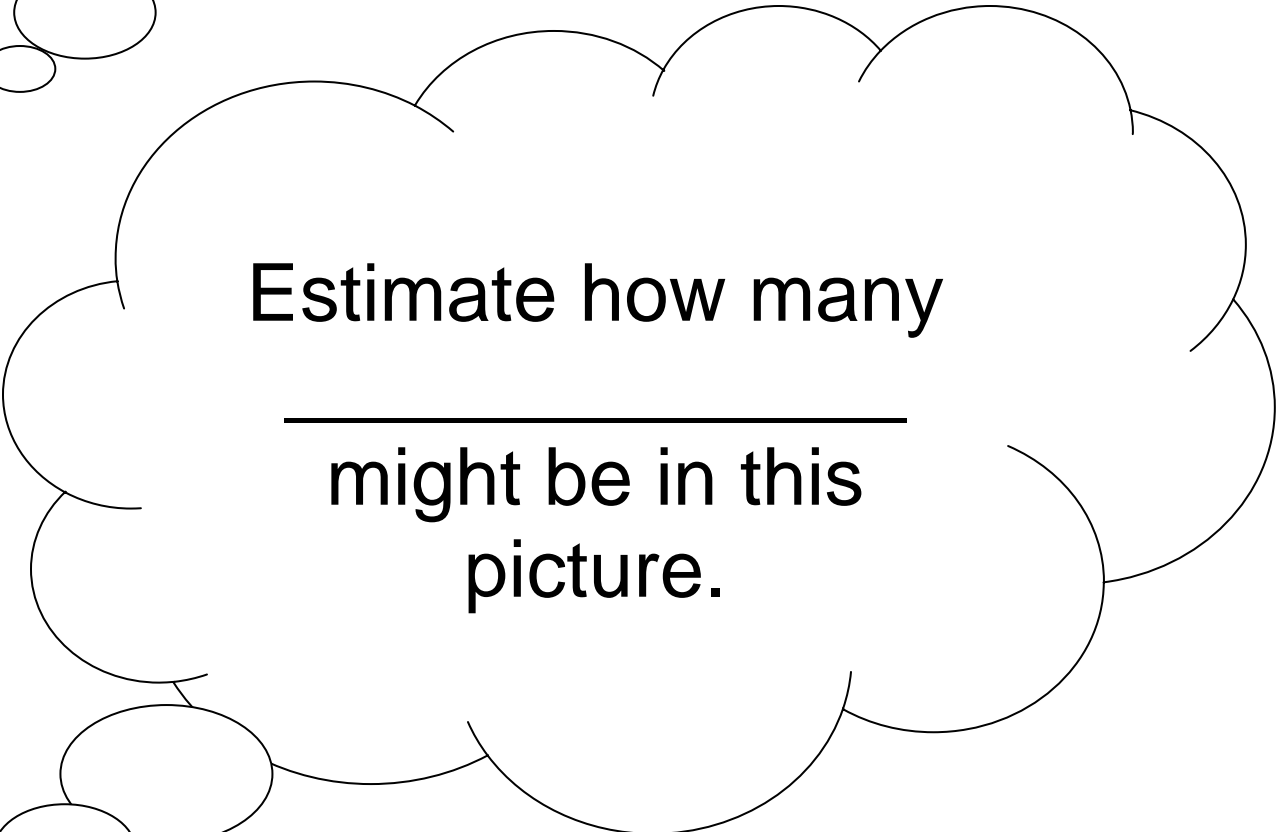

_____ in
the picture.

What do you think this is a picture of? What makes you think that?

How many people do
you see in this picture?

List the different
shapes you see in this
picture.

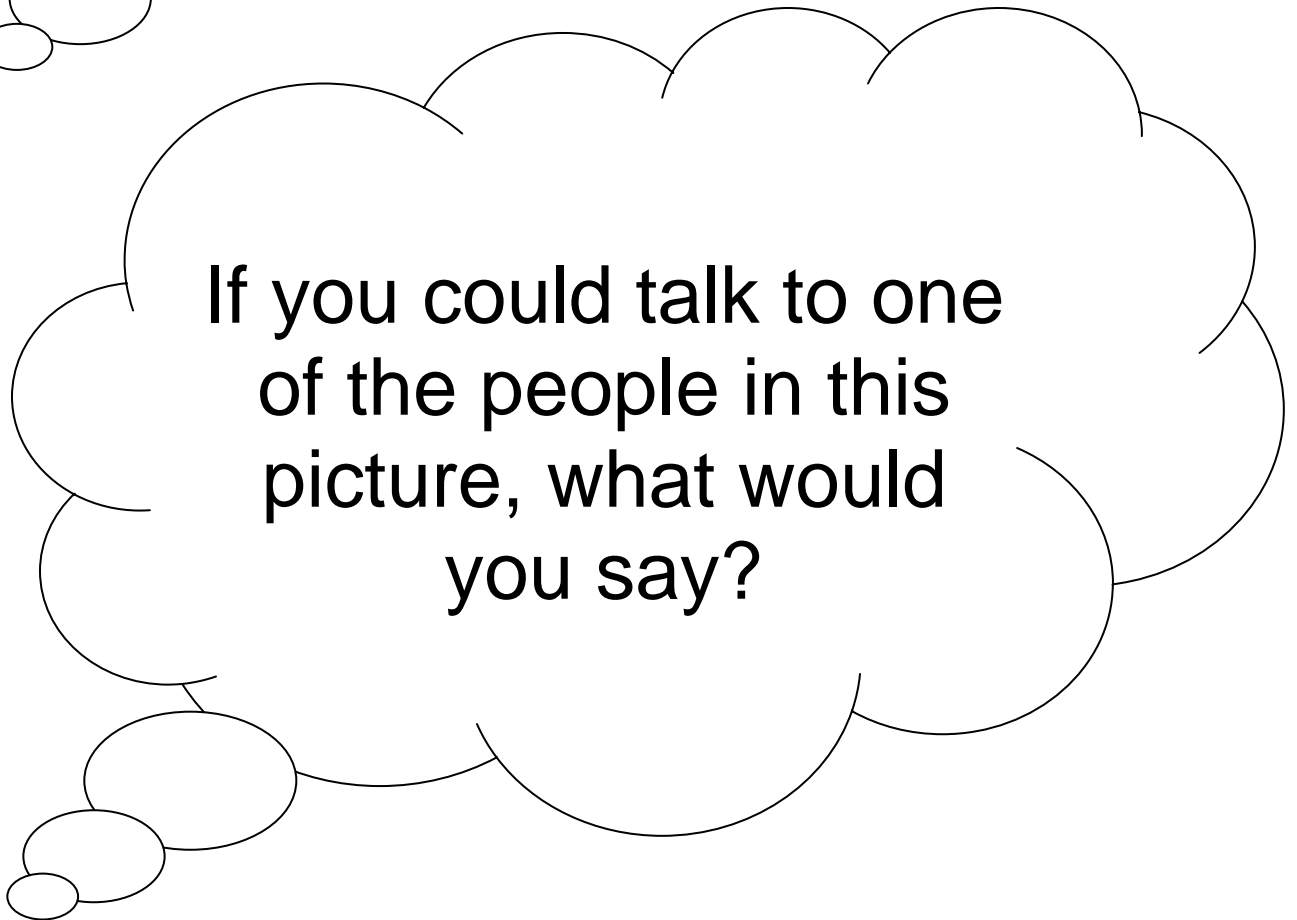

Estimate how many

might be in this
picture.

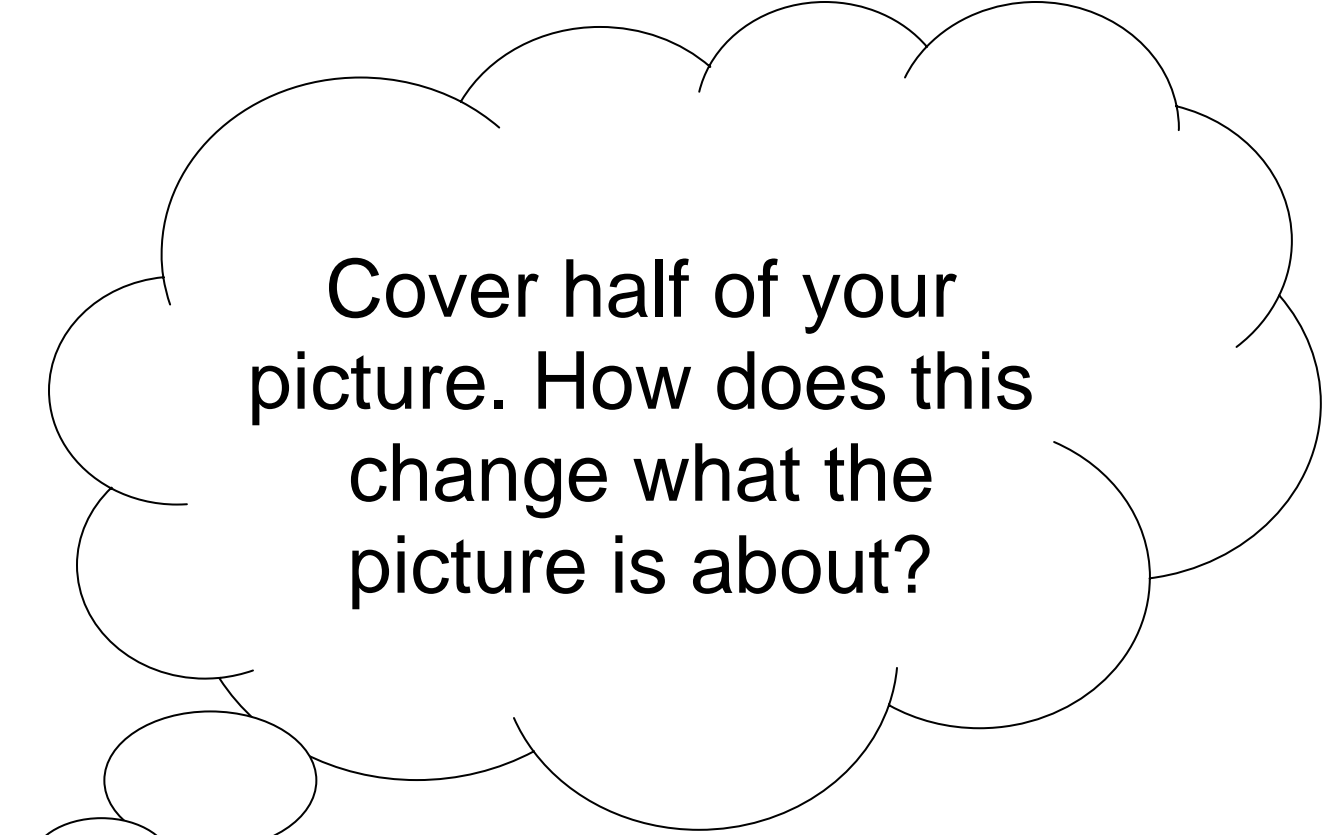

A large thought bubble with a scalloped border. Inside the bubble, there are four horizontal lines for writing. To the left of the main bubble, there are three smaller circles of decreasing size, connected by a line, representing the tail of the thought bubble.

If you could talk to one of the people in this picture, what would
you say?

A large thought bubble with a scalloped border, identical in style to the one above. It contains the question: "If you could talk to one of the people in this picture, what would you say?". To the left of the main bubble, there are three smaller circles of decreasing size, connected by a line, representing the tail of the thought bubble.

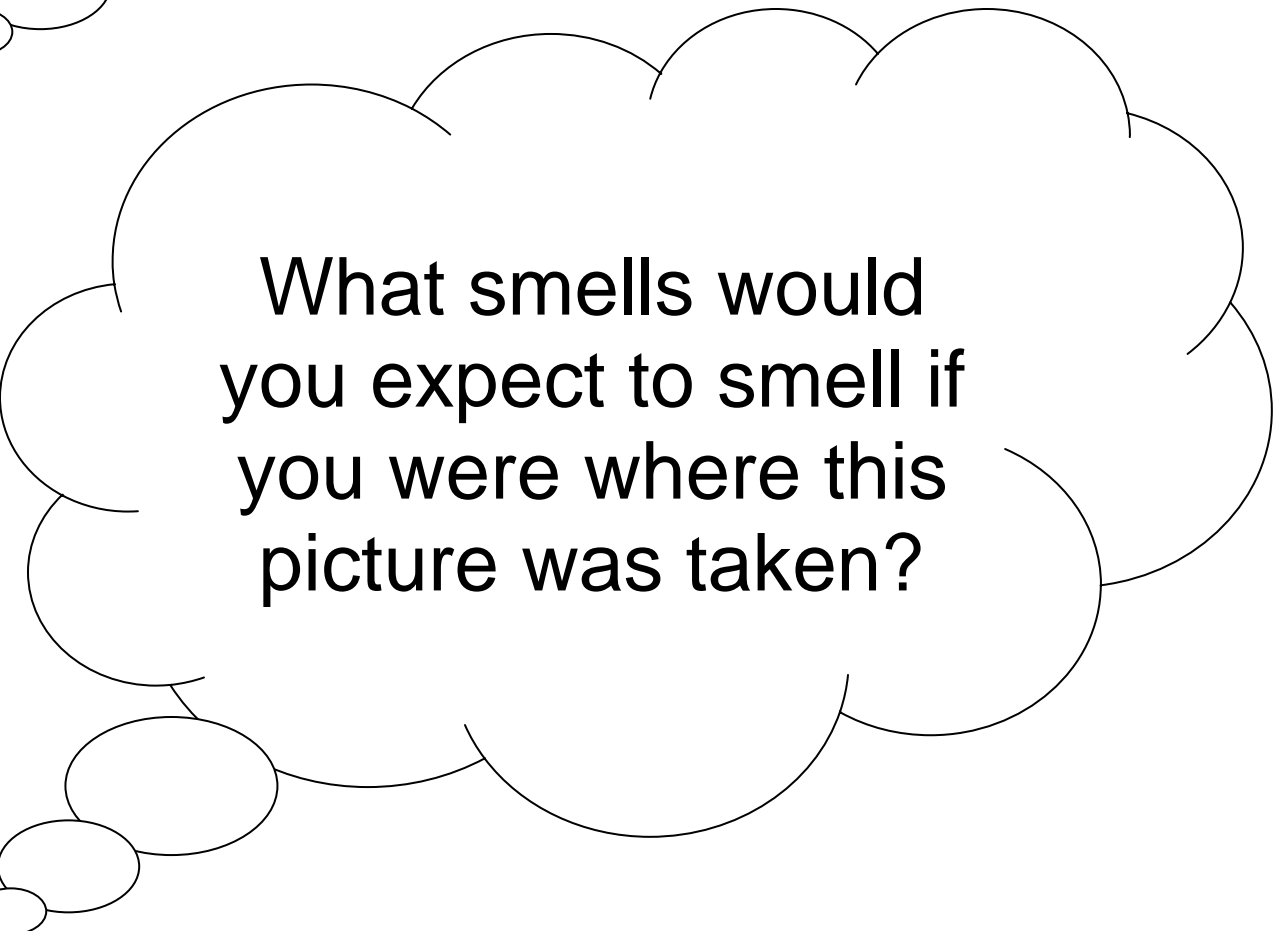

Cover half of your picture. How does this change what the picture is about?

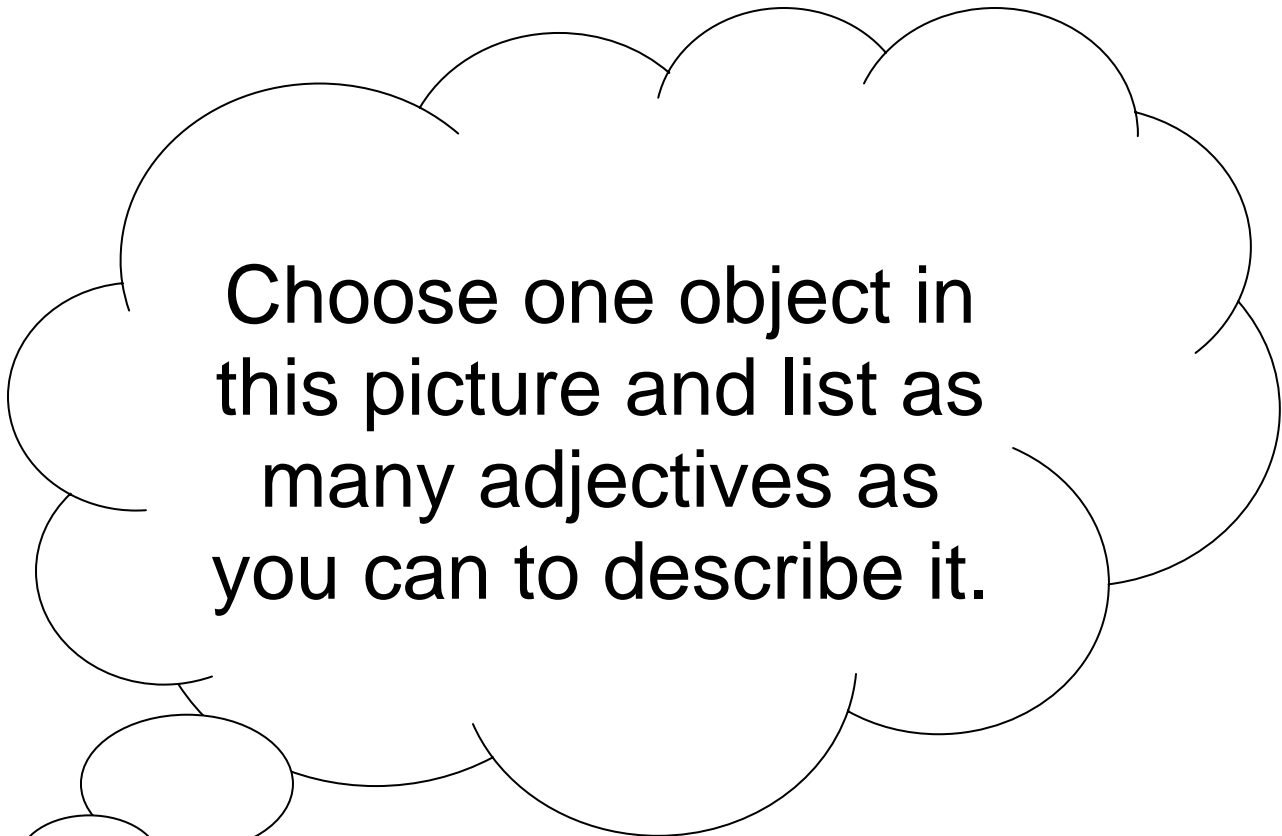

Give a new title to this picture. Why did you choose that title?

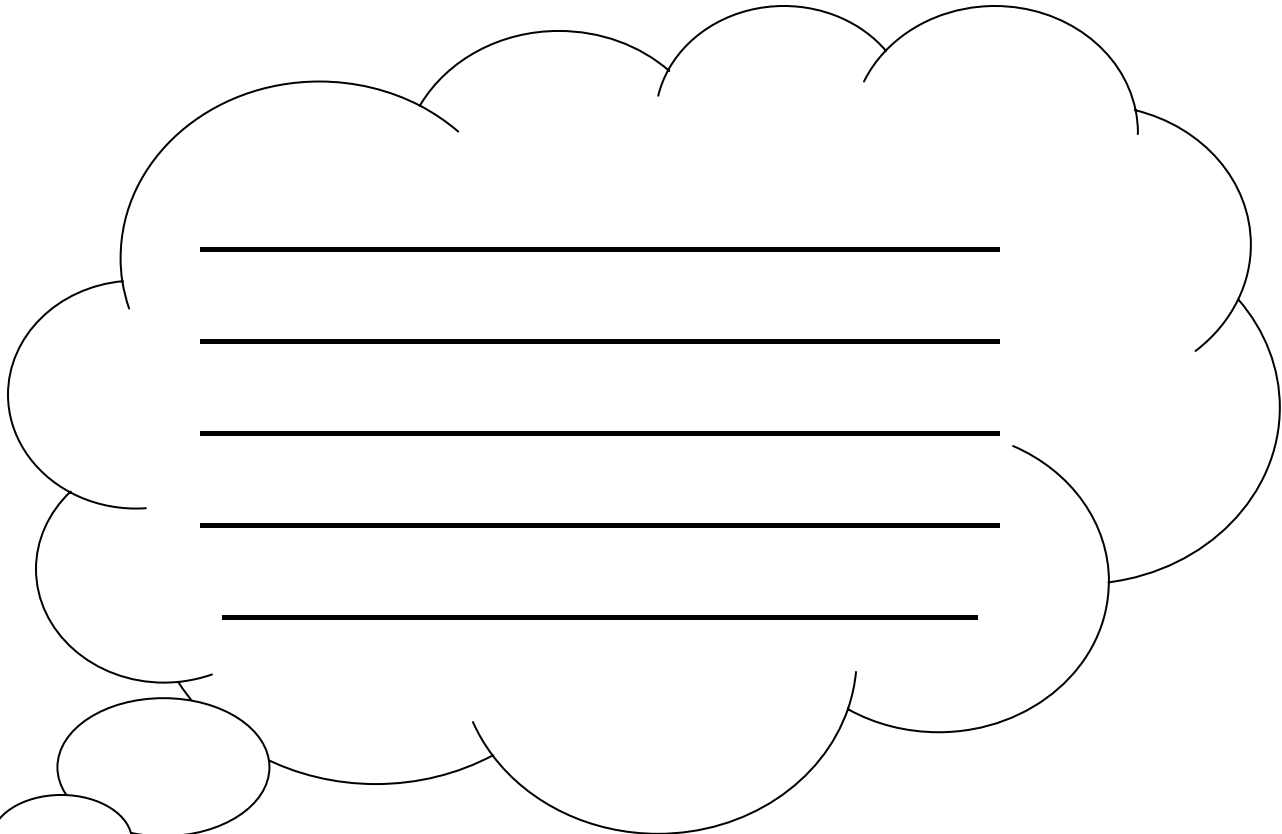

When do you think
this picture might have been taken? What makes you think that?

What smells would
you expect to smell if
you were where this
picture was taken?

Choose one object in this picture and list as many adjectives as
you can to describe it.

The image features two identical thought bubble shapes, one positioned above the other. Each bubble is composed of a large central cloud-like shape and three smaller circles of decreasing size on the left side, connected by thin lines. The upper bubble contains four horizontal lines for writing. The lower bubble contains the text: List 3-5 questions you have about this picture.

Who is the most important person in this picture? What makes you think that?

Write a caption for this picture that you feel explains what this picture is about.

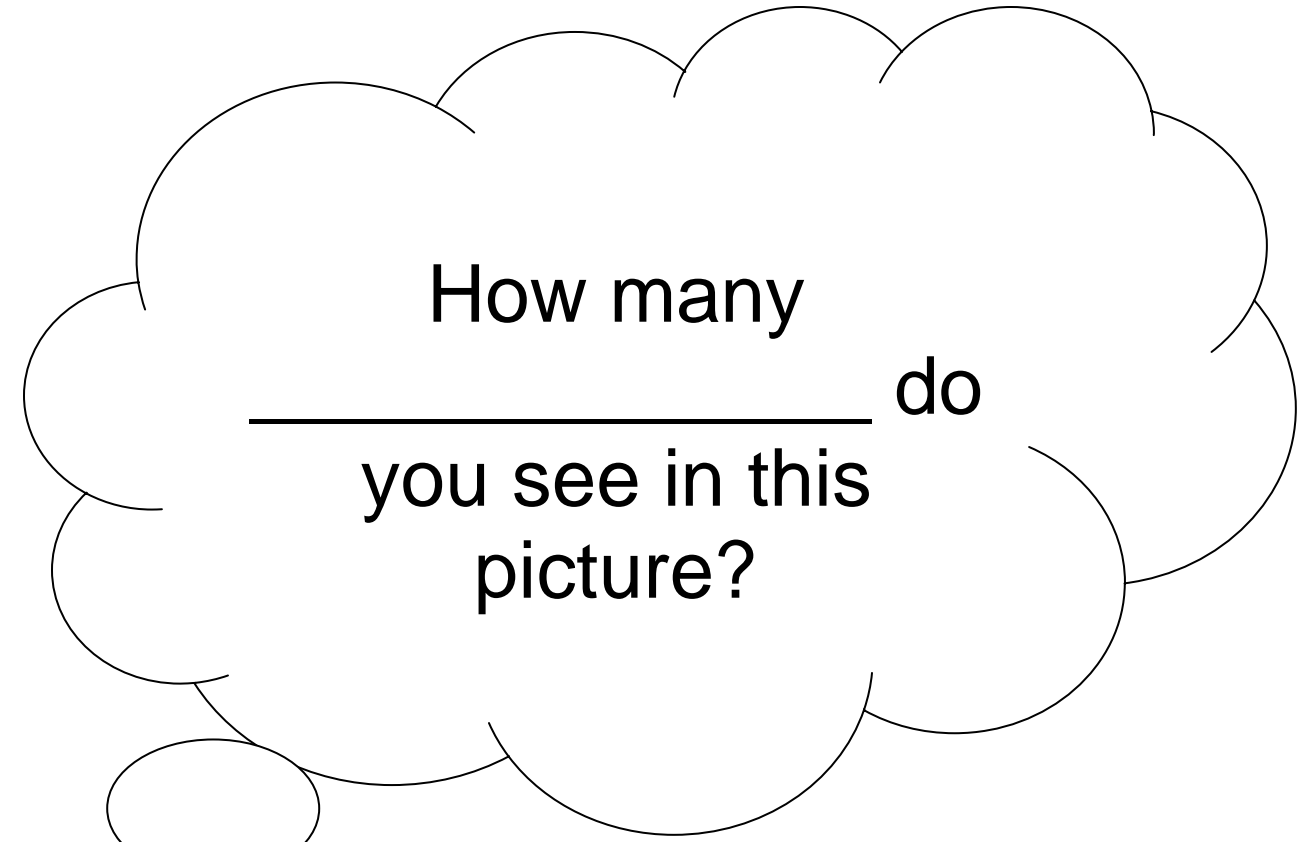

Do you think this is an important picture to study? Why or why not?

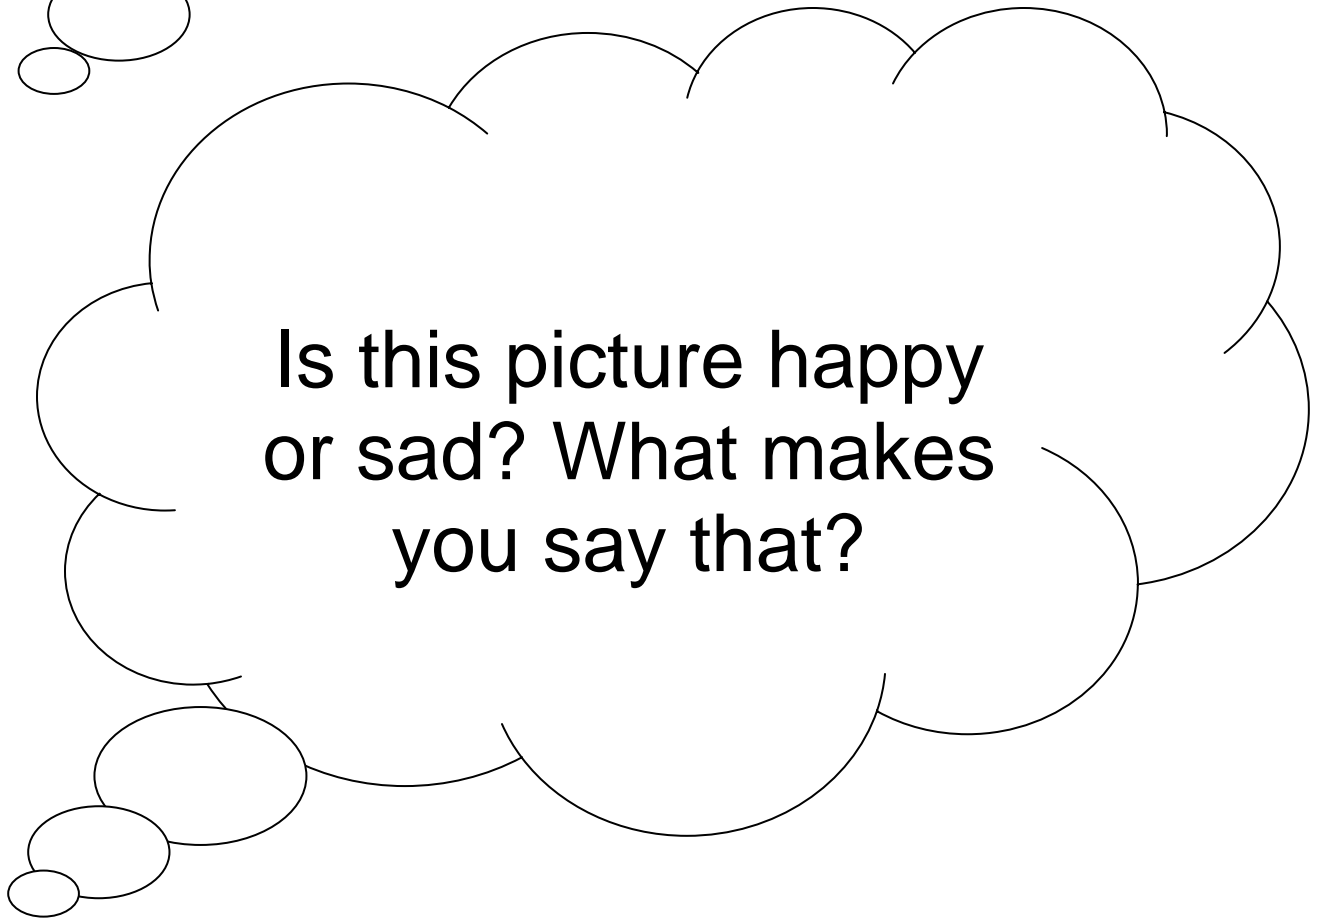

If this picture were in color, what colors would you expect to see?

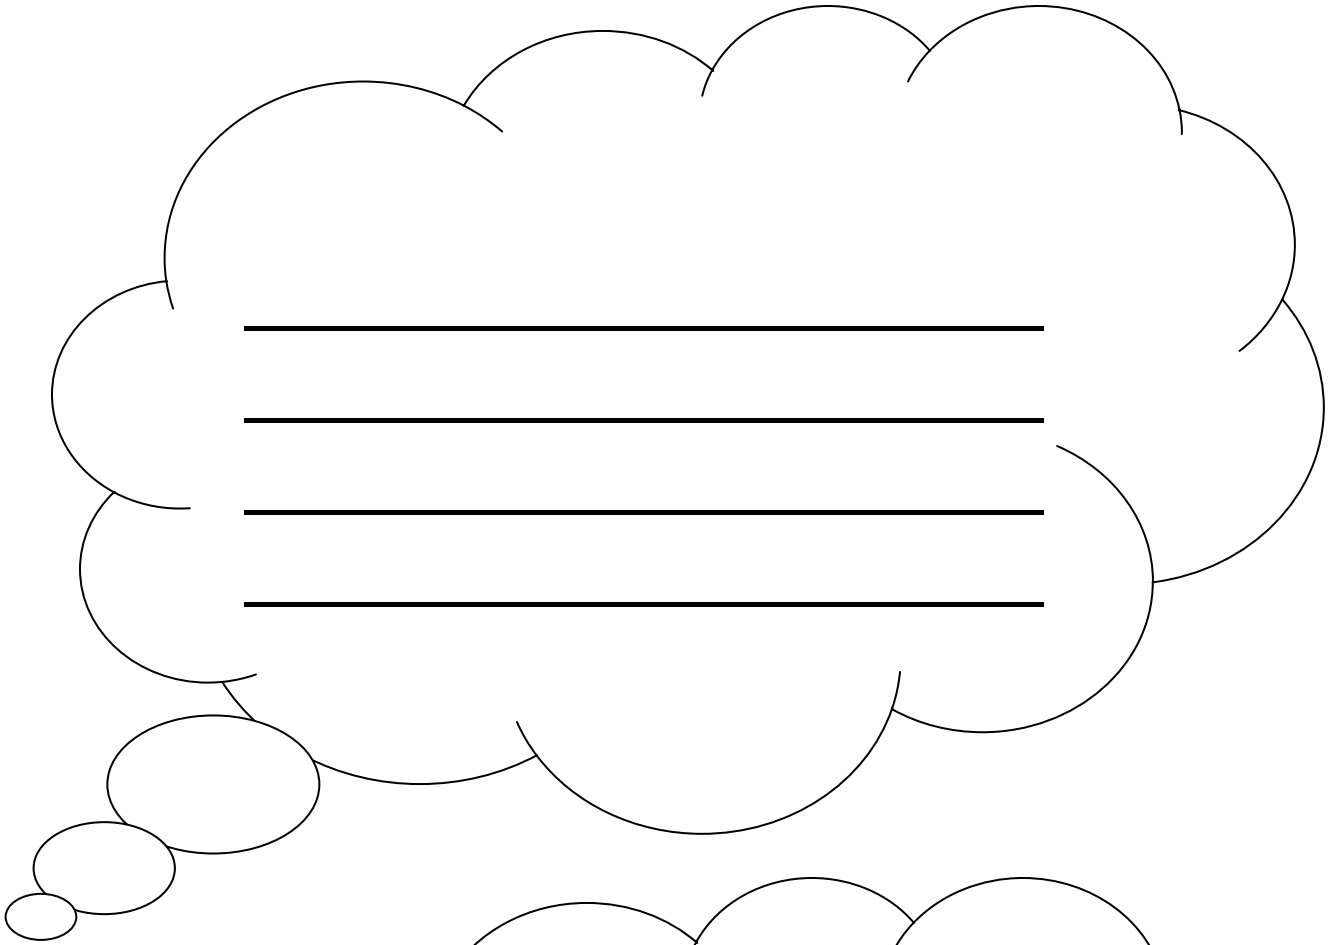

What if in this picture,

_____?

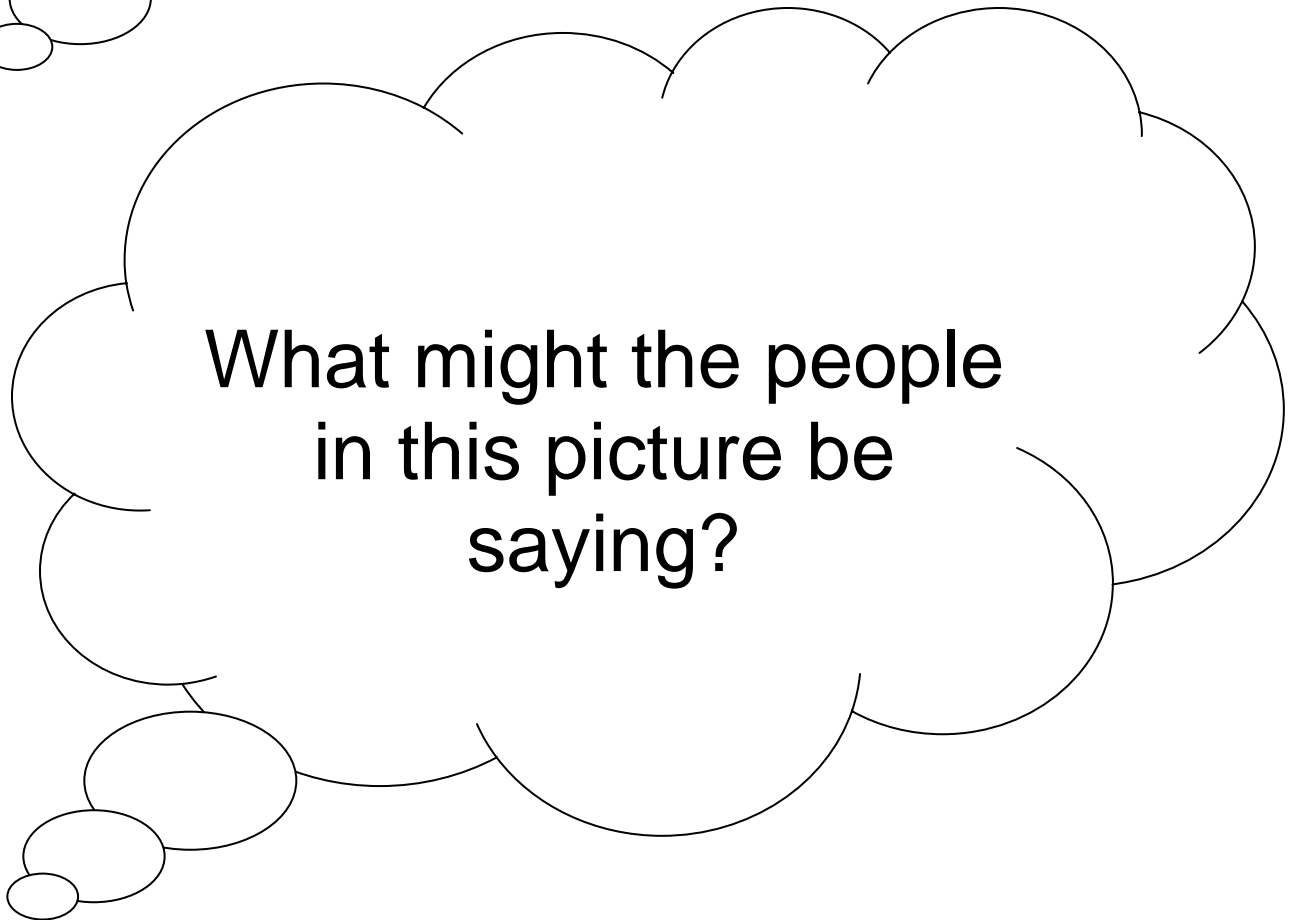

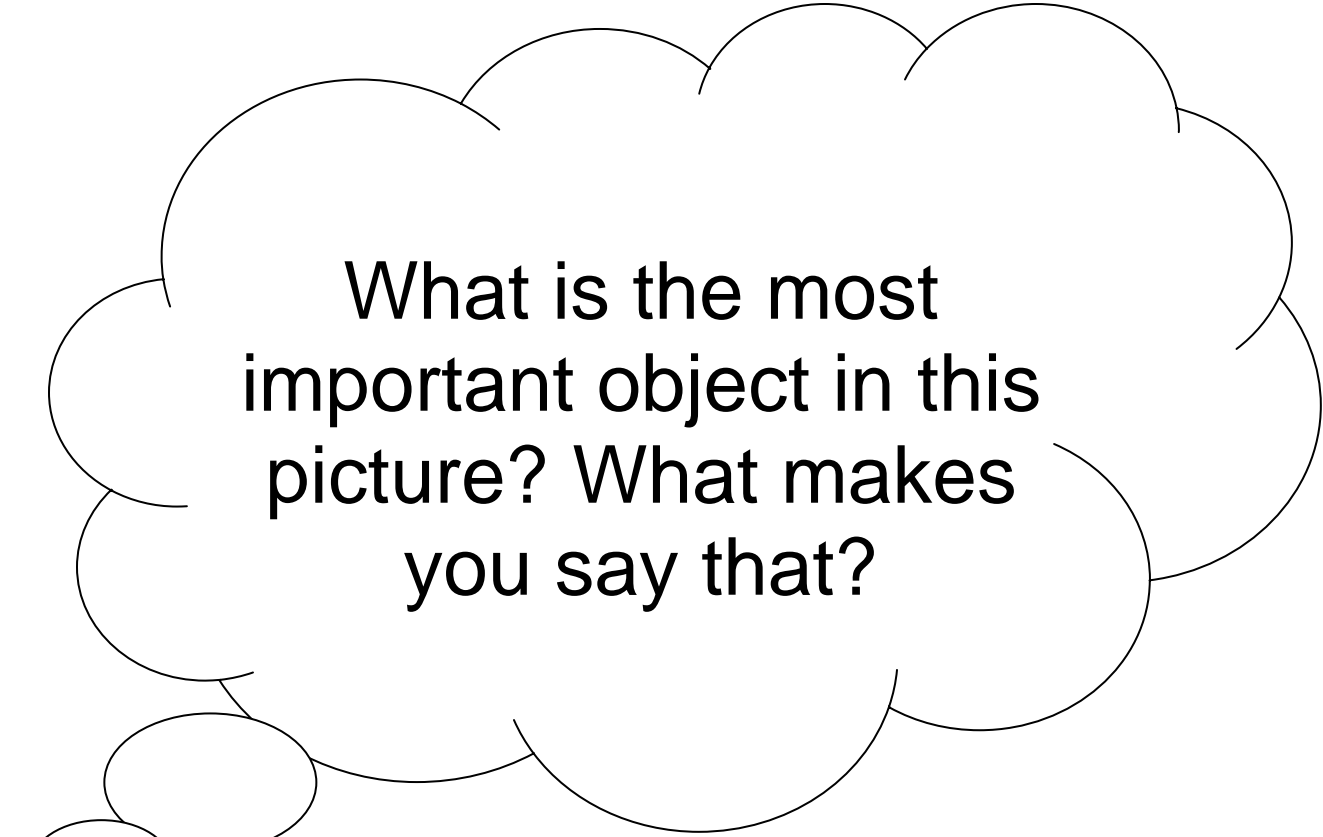

Is this picture happy
or sad? What makes you say that?

What might the people
in this picture be saying?

What is the most important object in this picture? What makes you say that?

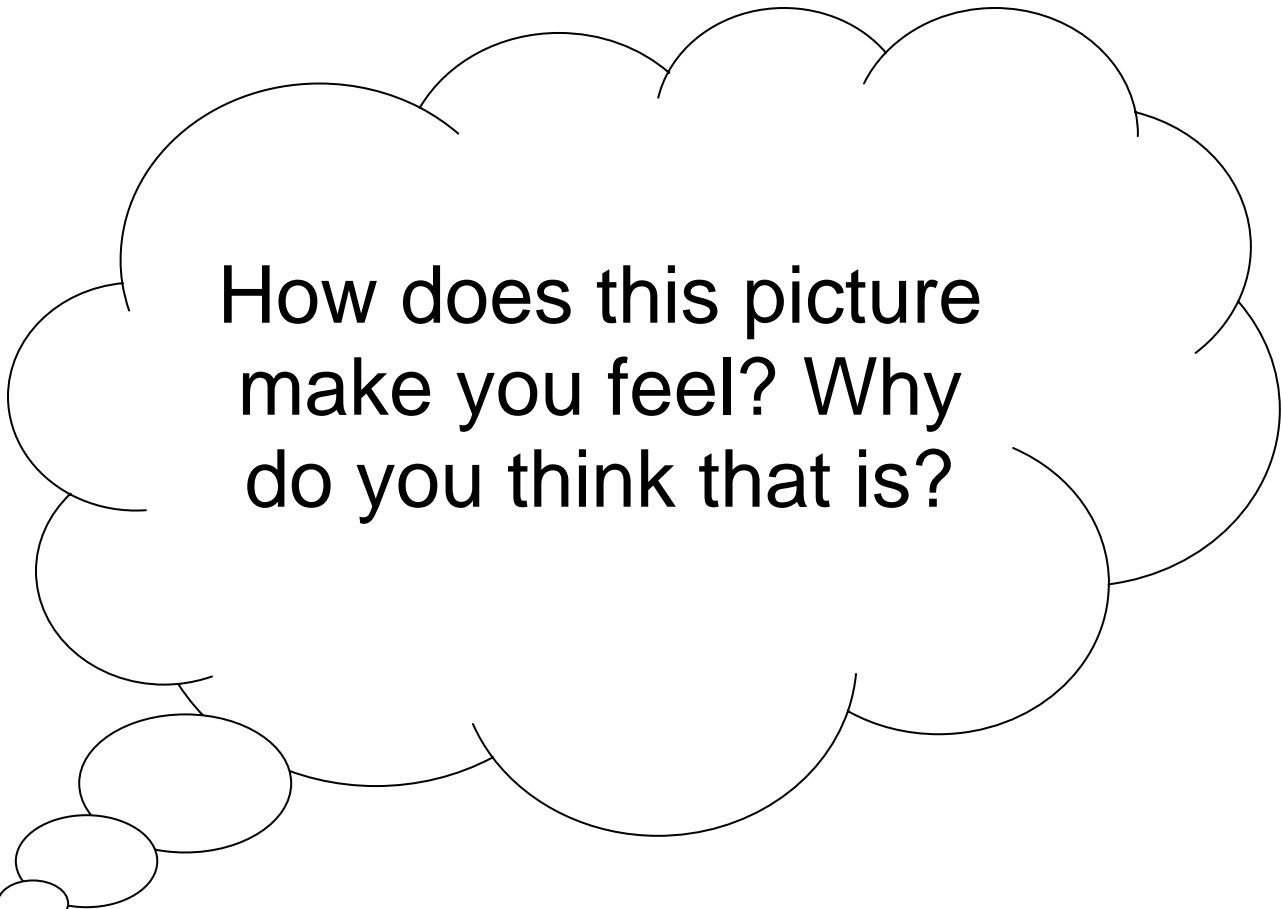

Create a new picture that shows what happened right before this picture was taken.

Is this picture a good example of a

_____?

Why or why not?

How could you act out
the things you see in
this picture?

How does this picture
make you feel? Why
do you think that is?

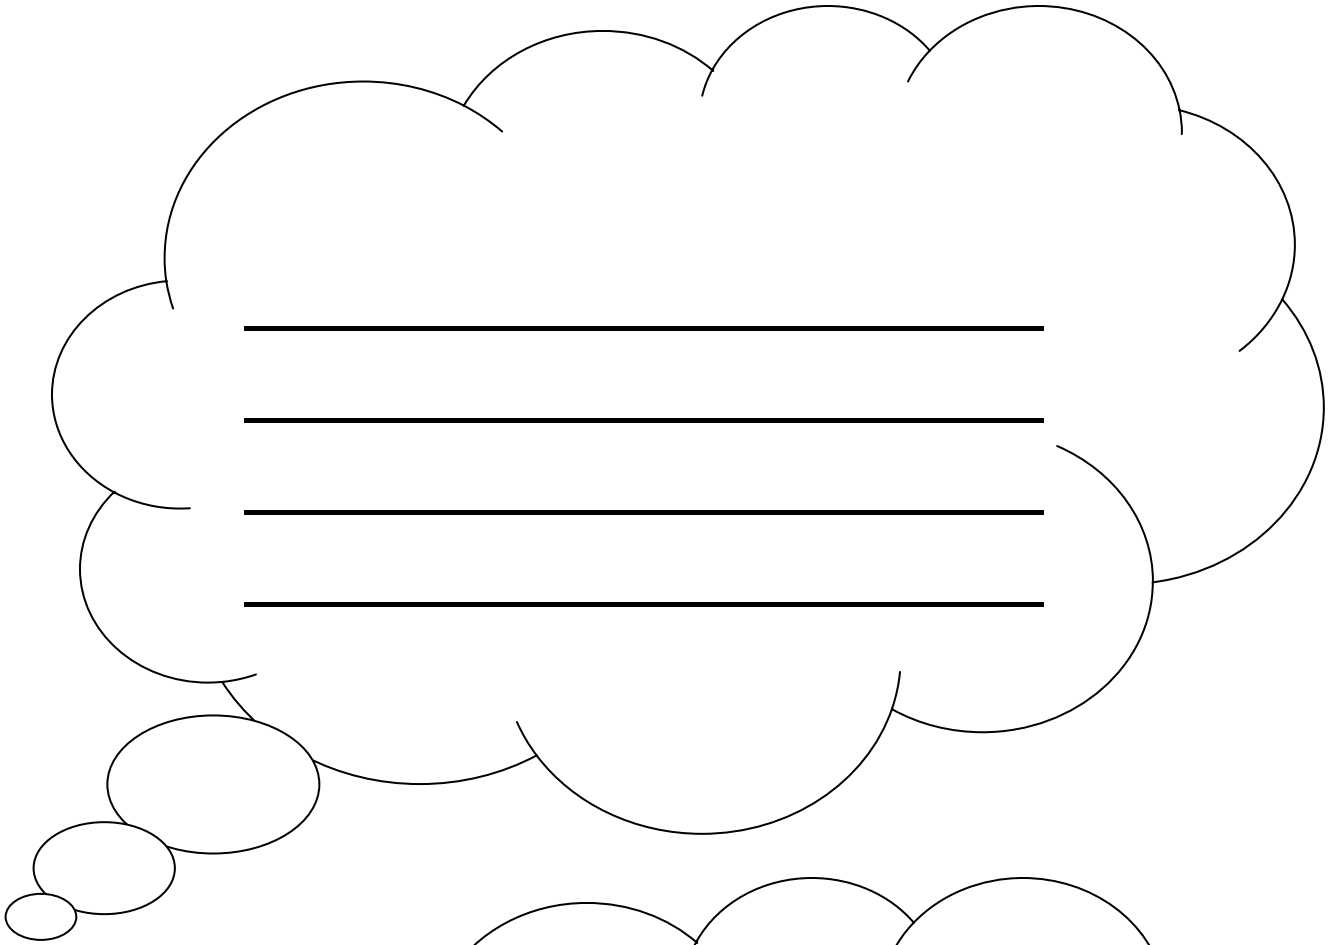

List all the objects that
start with

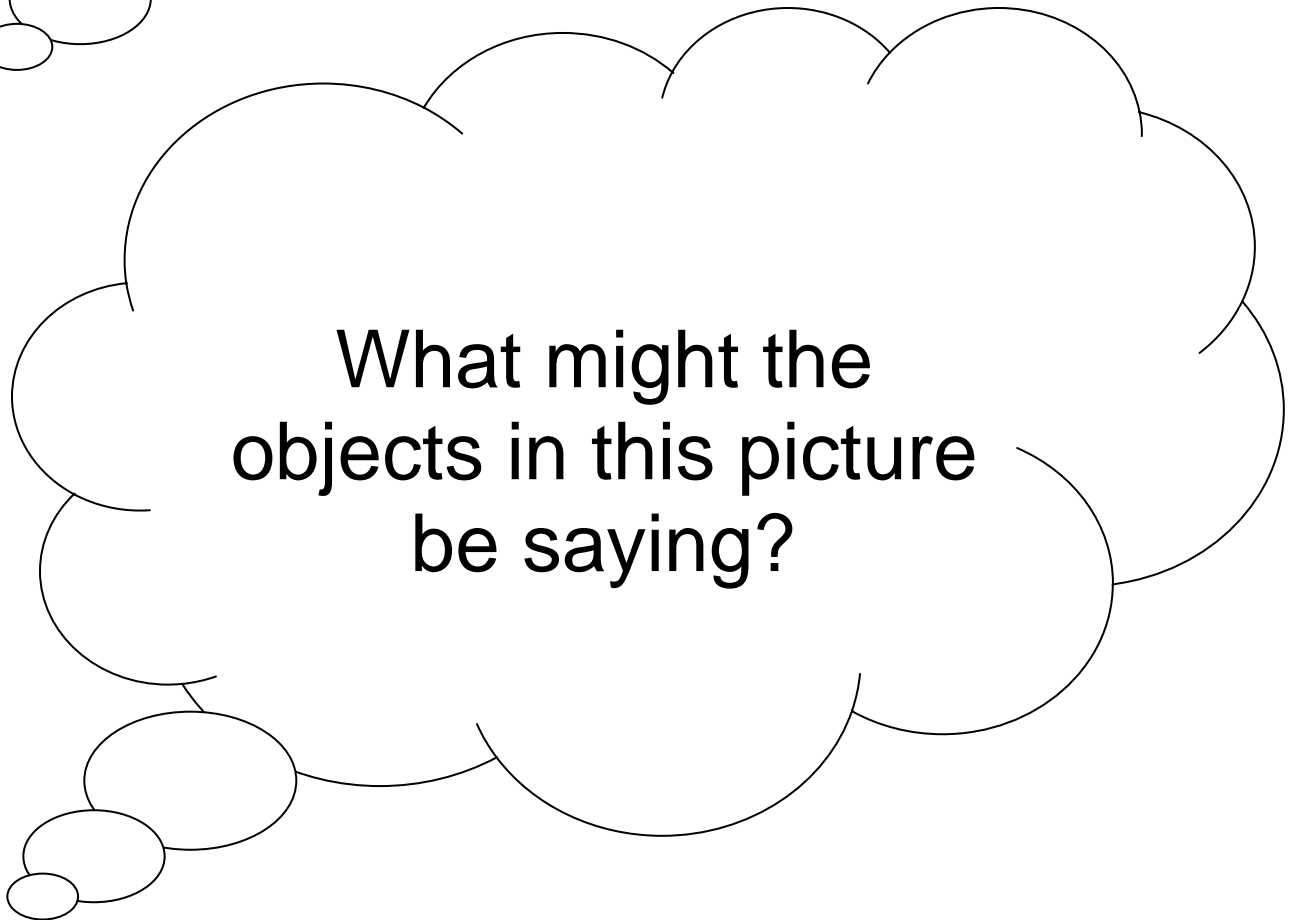

“ _____ ” in
this picture.

Is this picture new or old? What makes you
say that?

What might the
objects in this picture
be saying?

In this picture, what is
the _____-est?
or the most
_____?
(superlative)

Turn the picture over
and draw what you
remember of this
picture.

What chapter in your
textbook would this picture belong in?

What could you
change in this picture
that would give the
picture a new idea?